Outlook (p.24)

Appendix (p.27)

FY 2021 Highlights

Another record result in 2021 despite considerable cost inflation, scarcity of raw materials, energy as well as logistics

Industrial Sector: strong sales and order book; improved performance against headwinds – close collaboration of supply chain management, procurement, R&D and production

Proactive working capital management resulted in improvement of working capital as % of LTM revenues versus 2019 and 2020

Sharp price decline for protective gloves after reaching the plateau in Q2'21, albeit still at above pre-corona level at year-end

Strong cash flow generation supports aspiration for future organic and inorganic growth

- Order book and revenues exceed pre-corona level despite regional differences
- Strong operating performance against limited availability of raw materials, cost inflation for raw materials, energy and logistics as well as supply chain disruptions
- Margin development: trade-off between cost optimisation and reliable fulfilment of orders
- Successful ramp up of production in Odry (CZ) in H2'21

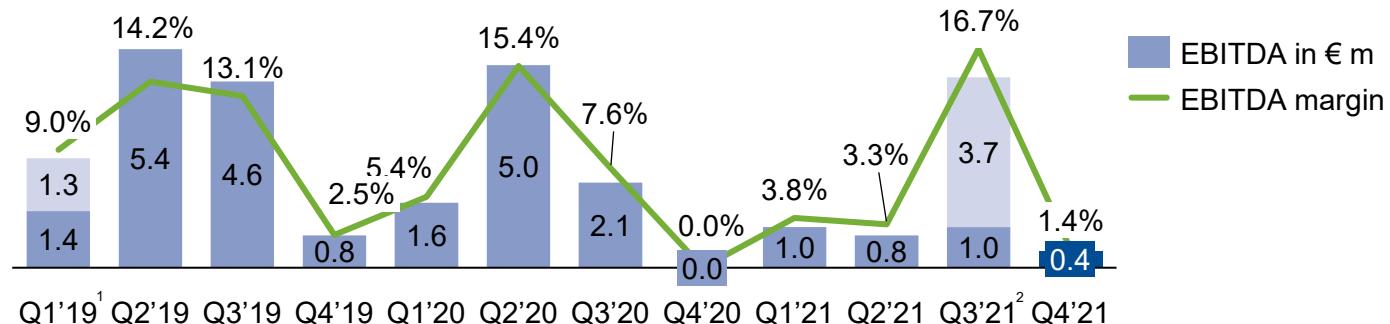

Sempertrans FY 2021

Headwinds from Covid impact, delayed investment decisions by customers and price increases

FY 2021 vs. FY 2020

Revenue current period	105
Revenue comparable period	113
EBITDA current period	7
EBITDA comparable period	9

in € m

- Higher raw material's cost levels result in market recovery of mining industry, subsequently stimulating new investments and maintenance
- Order book almost doubled compared to YE 2020: replacement orders increased, major replacements & new projects expected to pick up in 2022
- EBITDA decline in 2021 mainly caused by volume deviation and price pressure on raw materials & logistics
- Segment receives highest management attention

¹ Q1'19 EBITDA: positive effects of € 1.3m profit from sale of assets of closed factory in China

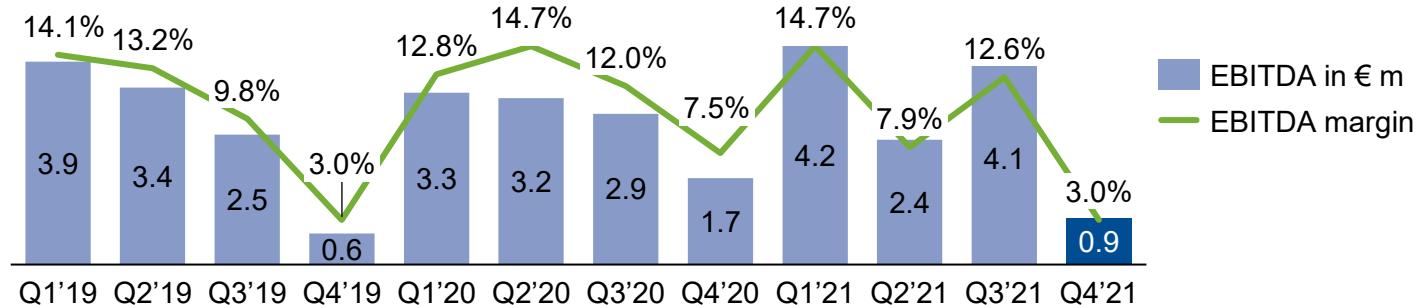

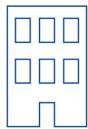

² Q3'21 EBITDA: positive effect of € 3.7m from recycling of foreign exchange differences

EBITDA comparable period	11

- Order intake above 2020 throughout 2021, order book well above YE 2020 at YE 2021
- Strong top-line and EBITDA growth – both above pre-corona level of 2019
- Continued pressure of high raw material costs impact EBITDA, EBIT and margins despite proactive price increases
- Excellent performance in delivery and reliability

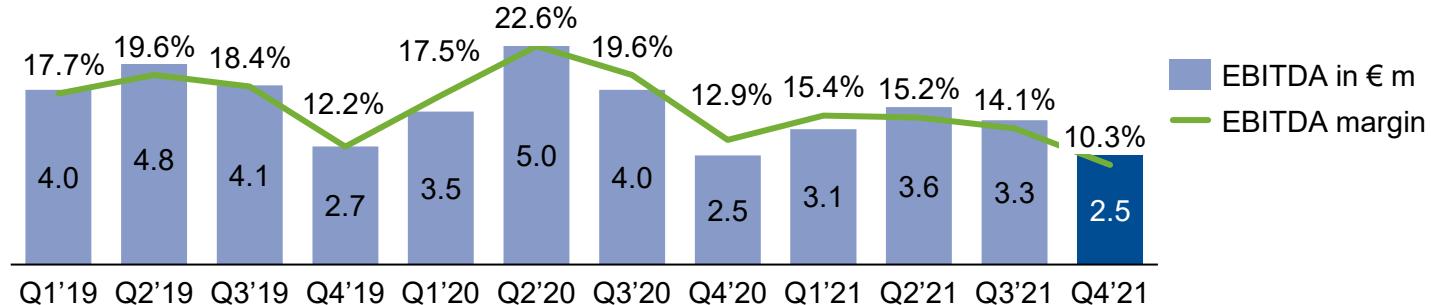

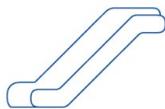

Semperit FY 2021

Continuing top-line growth – with different product mix

Semperit

FY 2021 vs. FY 2020

Revenue current period	91
Revenue comparable period	82
EBITDA current period	12
EBITDA comparable period	15

in € m

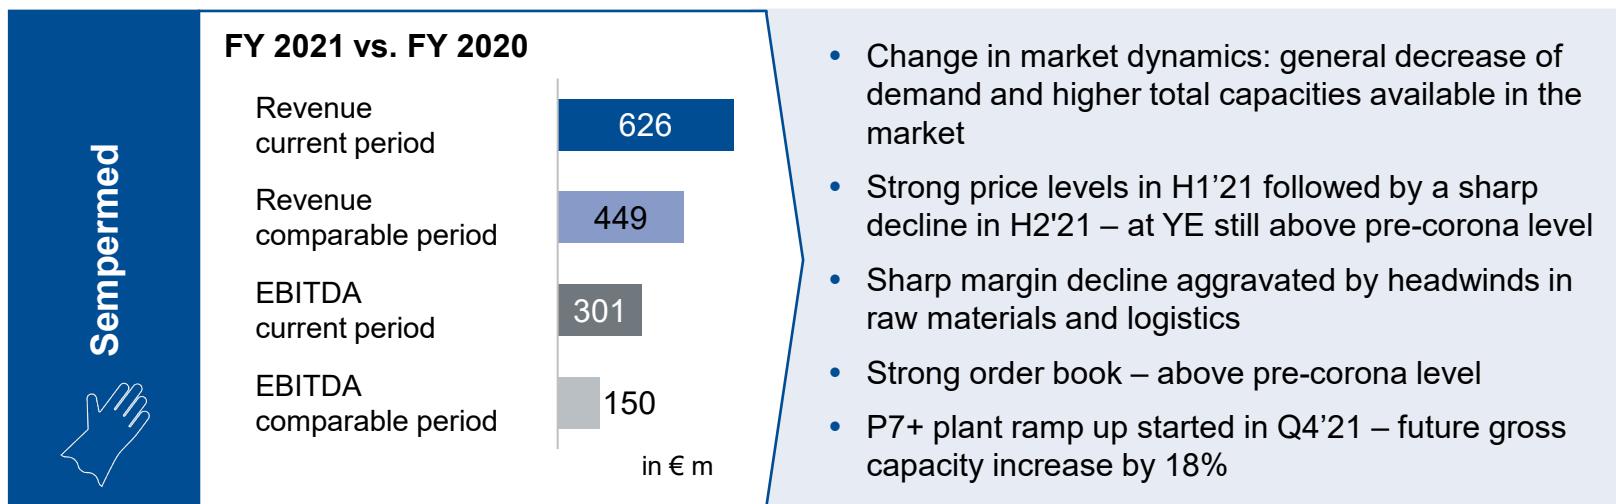

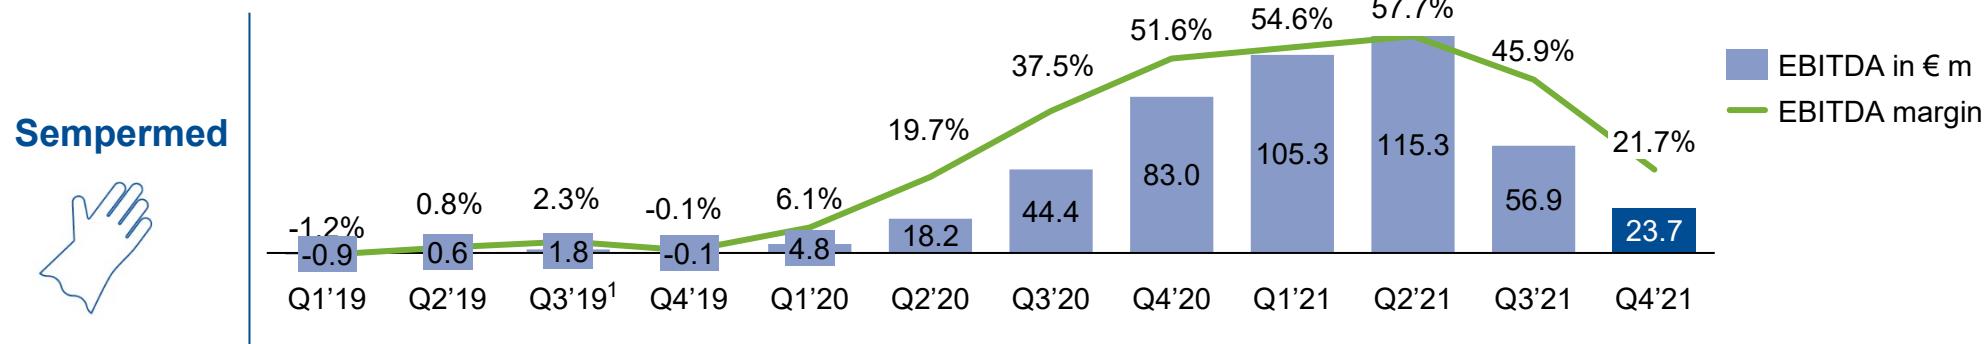

- Strong order intake results in improved order book level vs YE 2020
- Strong turnover and output growth
- Regional portfolio expansion in progress
- Product mix change with lower share of high-margin businesses (ski tourism) and higher costs lead to lower margins in 2021
- Top-line growth at handrail and SES (Engineered Solutions) exceeded 2020, especially in railway, piping and household industries

Medical Sector / Sempermed segment FY 2021

Price decline after reaching a plateau in Q2'21, yet still the best result in Sempermed's history

¹ Q3'19 EBITDA adjusted for € 4m due to the positive effect from the release of provision in Sempermed for Brazilian court case for tax liabilities

Proactively tackling cost pressure and supply chain disruption

Headwinds

Cost inflation and limited availability of raw materials and consumables

Costs and logistical planning of transport and container shipping

Rising energy prices since H2'21

Shortage of qualified labour and wage pressure

Countermeasures

- Strong and flexible collaboration of supply chain management, procurement, R&D and production
- Further increased operational efficiency
- Energy
 - Reductions in energy consumption due to efficiency increase
 - Selective pre-contracting
- Global multiple sourcing of raw materials
- Improved service levels
- Consequential sales price increases

Unprecedented raw materials price inflation

- Higher raw material and logistics costs consistently throughout 2021 recently further exacerbated due to the war in Ukraine
- Continuing operational efficiency measures seeking to offset total cost increases
- Further focus on global multiple sourcing

FY 2021 Financial Highlights

Price inflation and disruption due to raw materials and logistics throughout 2021 further aggravated by cost pressure in Q4'21

Active working capital management remains the key focus despite increasing headwinds since H2'21

CAPEX increase to support future growth potential despite logistical constraints for investment goods

Robust balance sheet and strong cash flow generation support aspiration for future organic and inorganic growth

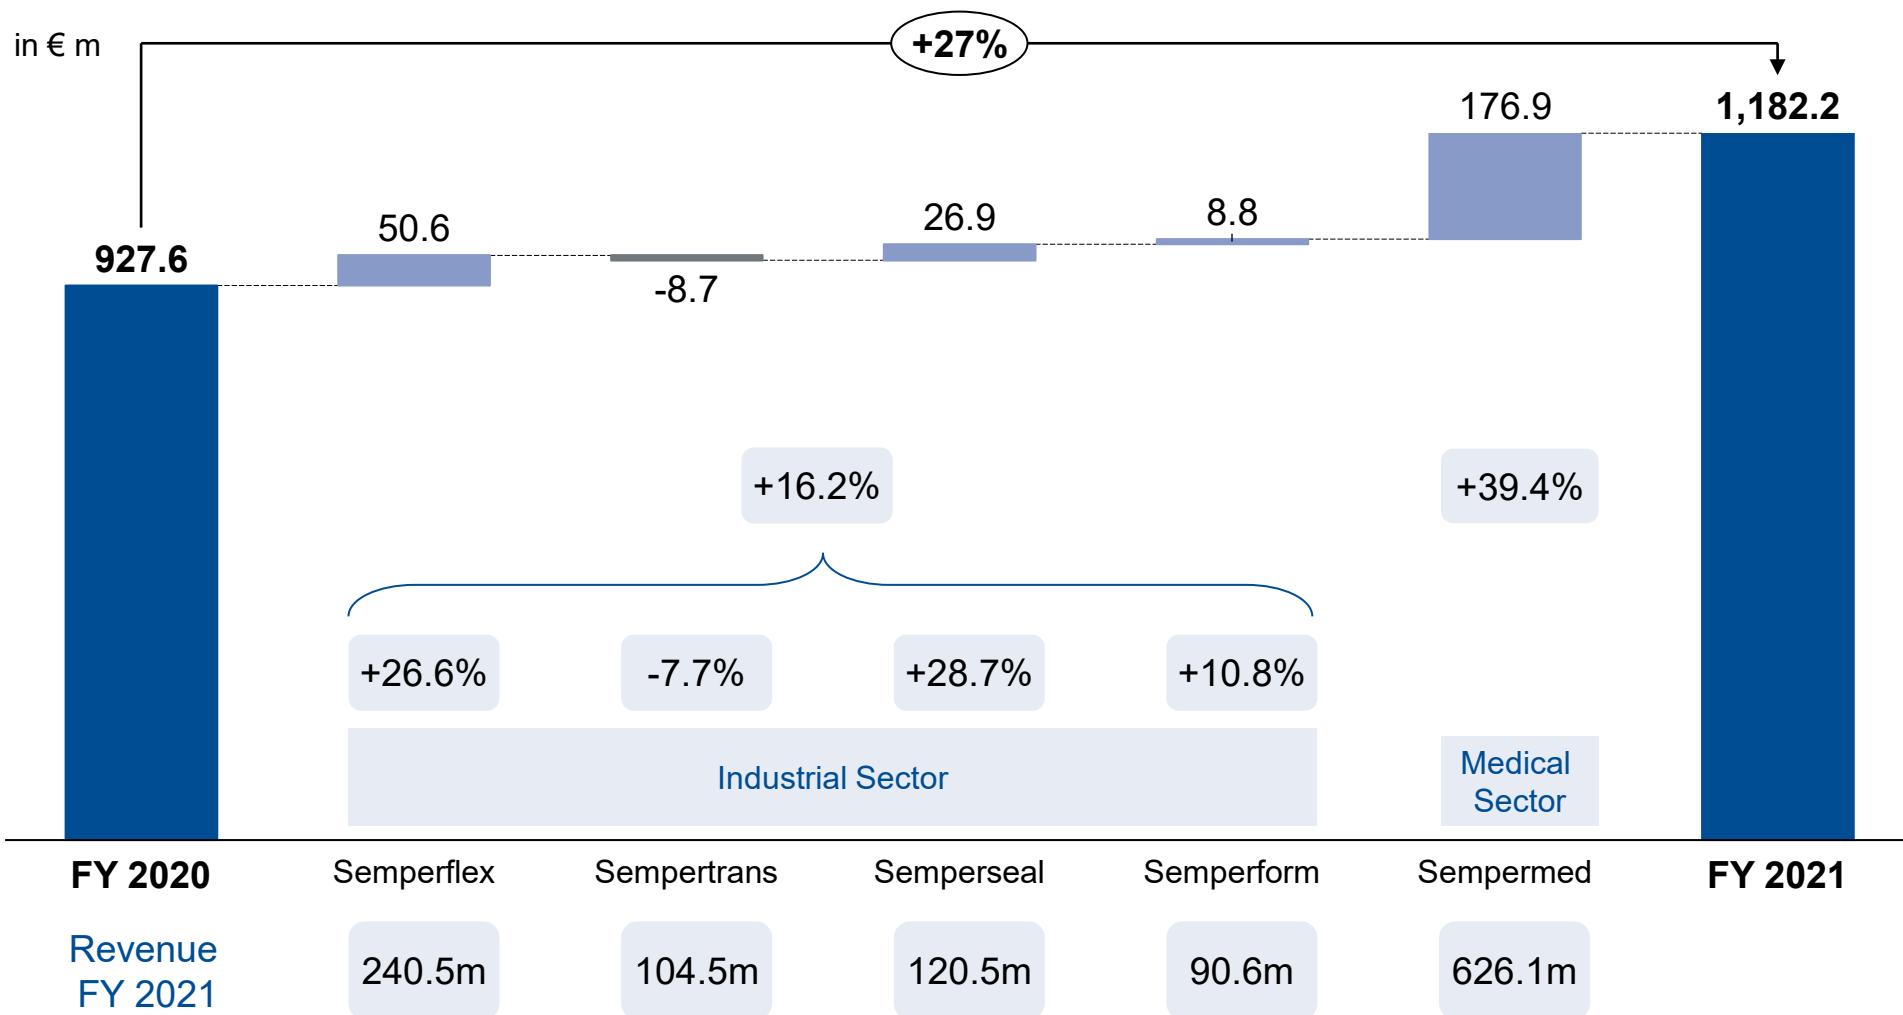

Operational efficiency and cost focus remain key management measures to tackle cost pressure in raw materials, energy, logistics and labour

2022 EBITDA is expected to be significantly below average market consensus due to Russia-Ukraine conflict (as of early March 2022)

Revenue development

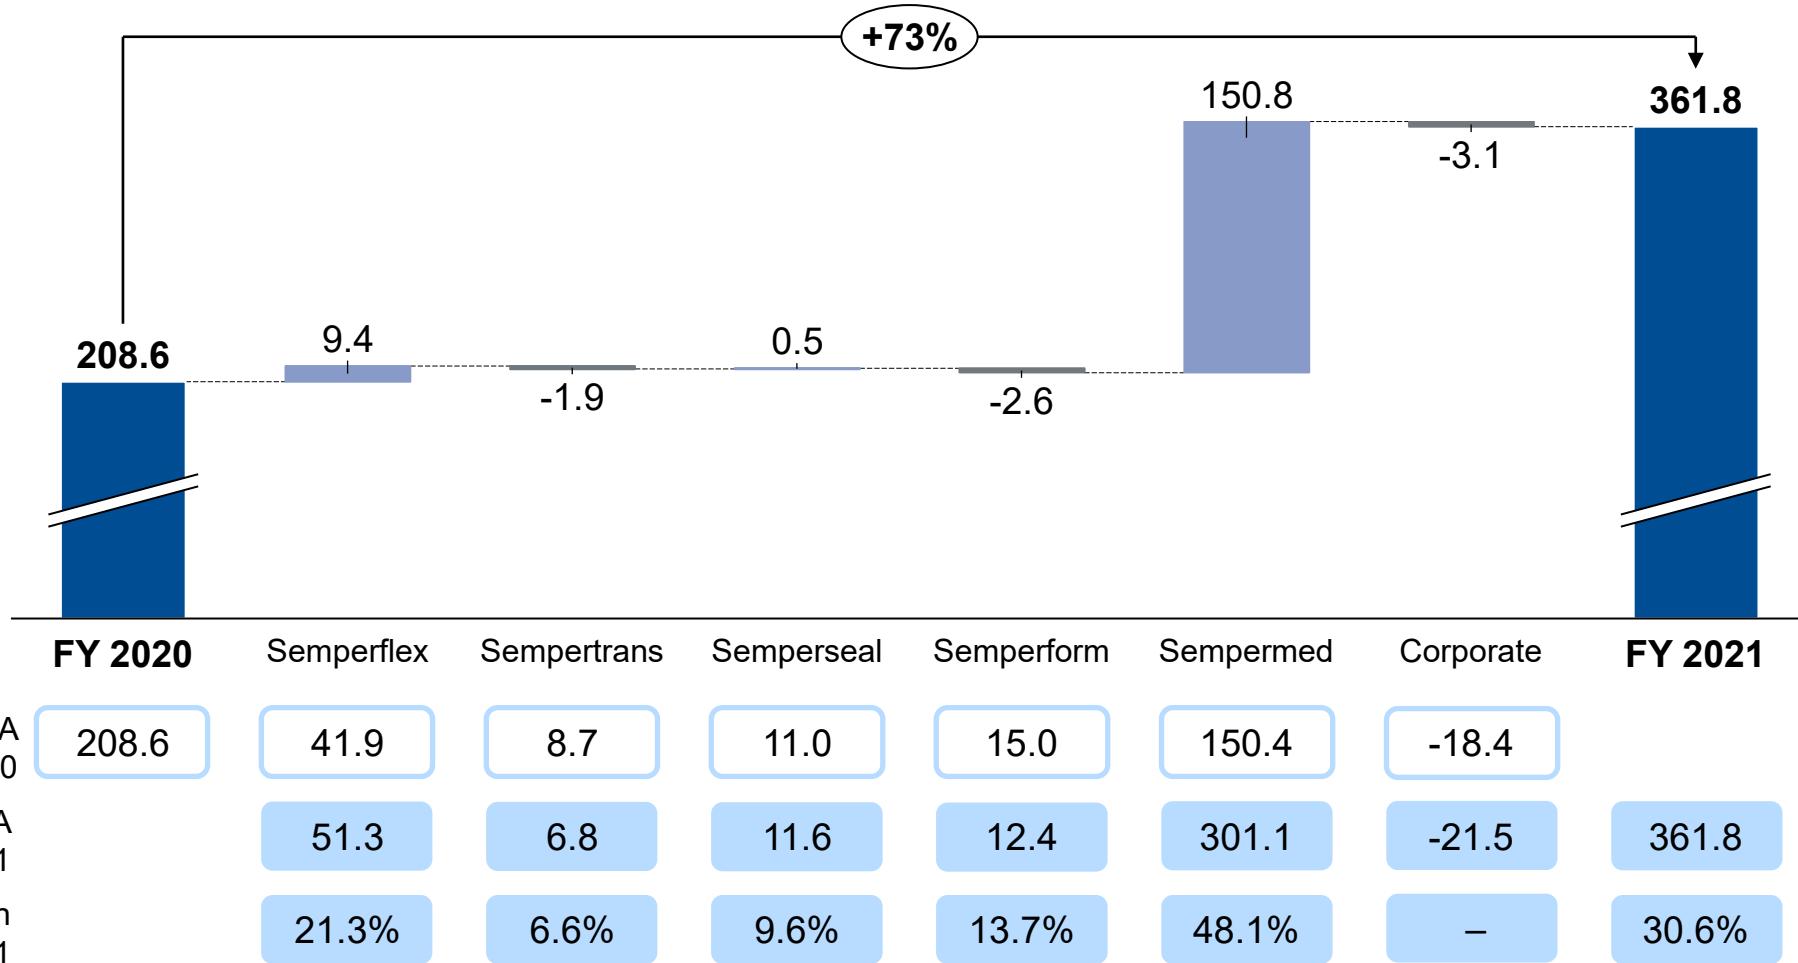

% change of each segment / sector refers to 2021 vs. 2020.

in 2022

Protective glove
prices clearly declining from plateau in Q2'21

Focus on strategic growth of the
Industrial Sector

Strict cost management to maintain competitive position

Further acceleration due to geopolitical crisis:
increased mobilisation of solution oriented capabilities

Expectations for 2022

Strong focus on internal management capability against exogenous factors (raw materials, energy, logistics and labour)

Geopolitical crisis has worsened the availability of raw materials and increased the need for higher inventory buffers

Market dynamics might deviate from common assumptions

Semperit maintains its customer promise of reliability and quality of service

Consequently, 2022 EBITDA is expected to be significantly below average market consensus (early March '22 € 100-120m) due to Russia-Ukraine conflict
